

Jane's feedback

A somewhat belated huge "thank you" to Robin and Natalie for a fantastic day last Saturday!

Everything was so good, so where do I start?

- the large and small ensemble playing – playing 12-part viola pieces was a new experience!
- Robin's wise tips and comments in the ensemble and masterclass sessions – things to work on in the future
- opening up the harmonies of the Brahms Eb sonata by Robin - fascinating
- contrasting relaxing sessions, including sitting and listening to the CDs
- the amazing duo finale concert, with two virtuosic musicians!
- the friendly welcome from the participants
- the incredible organisation, ensuring that everything ran so smoothly during the day

The venue was idyllic – all in all, a wonderful day. I hope to come again!
